FEATURING THE PRODUCTS OF CEBU NORTH

Ahhh...Cebu North! The district where white sandy beaches and green mountains abound... where city blends effortlessly with paradise.

This beautiful medley of rich natural resources from sea to summit has made possible the creative juices of our Nanay and Tatay entrepreneurs to produce beautiful handicrafts and delicious food products.

Bring home the memories of playful waves, cool breezes, warm sand and that "belly-full" experience with the district's curated line up!

Today I Learned #TIL: Do you know that Ritazo is not just a brand but that it actually stands for Respect, Integrity, Trust, Acceptance, Zeal, Optimism as these are the values for which the creative group of women led by Ate Maylin strongly abide by?

Ritazo Tingub Women Workers Association Products' trash to treasures are made from scrap fabrics which are transformed into affordable but highly durable and useful bags, pouches, and wallets.

If you are looking for the perfect corporate giveaway for your event or for that perfect beach getaway on the shores of Bantayan while supporting the zero waste initiative, go green with the classy and trendy bags and pouches of Ritazo!

TERE'S SPECIAL CHILI GARLIC OIL

As Filipinos, we never let that extra packet of ketchup, sachet of sugar, or that hotel shampoo go to waste, as it comes along with us back to our kitchens where there is a drawer or a section of the refrigerator dedicated to these free condiments.

And if you are a fan of siomai from Tisa or from that famous Cebu Chinese fast food chain, you've definitely tried chili garlic oil with that siomai. Perfect combination, indeed -- one that made us bring extra packets home!

No need to fret as you can definitely continue to be addicted to this sauce as Tere's special chili garlic sauce is now sold separately for you or your loved ones to enjoy. Its also perfect to give away as gifts as these are in airtight sealed bottles. What are you waiting for? Buy now!

JURIA'S GOURMET FOOD PRODUCTS

A day on the white sandy shores of KM 47, Malapascua, Bantayan, Camotes or Mactan, a chilly afternoon at that overlooking ridge at TOPS or just a lazy day in the comforts of your own home will never be complete without food.

With Juria's homemade products, the tart green mangoes that you snack on explode in a symphony of flavors when matched with the salty and spicy bagoong (baby shrimp paste).

A word to the wise: be ready with that "extra rice please!" when lunch includes the ginamos tugnos (fermented baby anchovies in vinegar and chili).

For the spice lovers out there, the Sambal Oelek is your chili paste game.

CAUTION: This stuff is addictive and may cause inflation of the waistline. But according to Ate Vicky: Don't panic, its organic!

What are you waiting for? Order now!

- 👉 Bagoong Alamang HOT AND SPICY P120
- 👉 Ginamos Tugnos P120

Come on, let's get real. Who doesn't love dried fish? Breakfast, lunch, or dinner, this bounty of the sea - especially abundant in the north of Cebu - is universally loved by Filipinos here or abroad. To the point where we know how to pack it super extra hard to ensure that it passes through any country's Customs for that perfect pasalubong.

Ate Joy ensures that your buwad (dried fish) is made from the freshest catch and laid out with love on the flat boards where the sun kisses your bulad before packing it in vacuum sealed containers.

Definitely a comfort food, the variety of dried products will satisfy your appetite and your cravings! Perfect when paired with a plain or garlic rice and the Sukang Dumanjug as your dipping sauce, this combo tops it all.

One Branch, One Product

A collection of handmade products including woven baskets, bags, jars, and packaged goods like 'Tablea' and 'Sukang'.

One Branch One Product (O.B.O.P) is a non-financial effort under the RAFI MFI Tindahan Ni Nanay program that highlights the proud products of the RAFI Microfinance members across the different branches enterprise-wide. It allows the respective districts and branches of RAFI MFI to bring in unique and handmade products of the Nanays and Tatays. This program enables branches to determine and promote products that are rooted in its community resource. As their own 'pride-of-place,' these are offerings where they can be the best at or best renowned for. This initiative endeavors to capacitate our 'Nanay & Tataypreneurs' to innovate and produce market-ready products and services. As well as provide support in terms of product marketing and be able to introduce these selected products to the mainstream market.
